

Minister C.V

Dr. Eisa Bashari M. Hamid
Minister of Science and Technology.

Dr. Hamid was born in 1956 at Almoglad, Sudan.
Graduated as a medical doctor (physician) from the faculty of Medicine, University of Khartoum.

In 1982 he accomplished his post-graduation and got doctorate degree in the field of community medicine, and also got a higher diploma in business administration.

After a successful career in medicine he took extensive managerial capacities at local governments as a minister of health, finance and economics at different states in Sudan since 1994.

He played a key role in the development when he appointed as vice governor of south kurdofan governance.

In 2003 Dr. Hamid had became a state minister at the Ministry of Federal Governance. And a state Minister of Science and Technology in 2007.

Currently, he is the Minister of Science and Technology