

Innovation in Renewable Energy Finance: The American Perspective and Global Applications

U.S. financiers of renewable energy have repeatedly proven their deftness in creating innovative financing mechanisms under unstable policy conditions. Financial institutions in the U.S. have worked with project developers to creatively distribute tax incentives to allow the necessary near-term capital for renewable energy projects, as well as the requisite long term returns for investors.

Potential speakers and panelists

Moderator:

Mike Echart, President of ACORE

Potential panelists from:

- Citigroup
- Good Energies
- Hudson Clean Energy Partners
- Credit Suisse

This panel will examine the financing structures that U.S. institutions utilize then discuss how these mechanisms fit into the global context of renewable energy finance. Finally, panelists will discuss renewable energy finance in India and how the lessons from the U. S financial institutions can be applied to nascent Indian renewable energy market.

Venue: Kosi Hall, DIREC 2010, EXPO Center, Greater Noida, Uttar Pradesh

Time: 5:30 PM to 7:00 PM on 28th October, 2010.

Entry: Free

Organized By: American Council of Renewable Energy (ACORE) & US Department of Commerce

Contact Persons:

Tim Cronin,

ACORE International Program Associate

Email: cronin@acore.org

Tel: 202-777-7563

Sanjay Prakash

Ministry of New and Renewable Energy

Email: sanjay.prakash83@nic.in

Tel: +91 8800181213